

From: Christopher W. Hunter
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 8:31am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I am writing due to my concern over the very inadequate settlement in the Microsoft case. The negotiated "slap on the wrist" settlement is very inadequate for a monopoly on the scale of Standard Oil and the former Bell system. As an American old enough to remember the telephone monopoly I feel that unfortunately that kind of "draconian" breakup is the only way to "open up" the computer operating system market and break Microsoft's monopoly power.

Christopher Hunter, Augusta, Maine